Marcus Karsten leaves his position as head of division in Bravida Finland

After laying the foundation for Bravida's business in the Finnish market, Marcus Karsten leaves his position as head of division in Finland.

– Marcus Karsten has played an important role in Bravida's establishment and expansion in Finland. With the acquisition of Peko Group, Halmesvaara Oy and Asentaja Oy, we have created a strong platform for continued development. Now Bravida Finland enters the next phase. I want to thank Marcus for his efforts, says Mattias Johansson, President and CEO of Bravida.

Marcus Karsten has been head of division Finland and member of Bravida's Management Group since 2014. Bravida has started the recruitment of a new head of division, in the meantime Mattias Johansson will be acting head of division.
