

Bravida Norway strengthens its security portfolio by acquiring Viste & Sømme AS Bravida Norway is acquiring the security company Viste & Sømme AS, thereby strengthening its position in security solutions in southwestern Norway. The company has sales of around NOK 22 million and 12 employees.

Viste & Sømme AS was founded in 1975. It offers security solutions and has extensive experience in bank security. The company provides services relating to, for example, alarms, CCTV, entry control, security equipment and cash handling machines. Its customer base consists of large private businesses and public organisations. The company is headquartered in Stavanger and has a branch in Bergen.

“Viste & Sømme AS is well-known as a quality supplier to the security sector in the Stavanger area. Bravida will now also be able to offer very good solutions in one of our most important product areas in southwestern Norway, and the acquisition considerably strengthens Bravida’s presence in the market. The employees have a high level of competence that will be important for making buildings, properties and facilities secure in the future,” comments Ronny Øvrevik, Head of the Coastal (Kysten) Division at Bravida Norway.

James N. Niller, the current CEO of Viste & Sømme AS, comments:

“We decided it was the right time to find a new partner to ensure further profitable growth for Viste & Sømme AS. We look forward to being part of Bravida’s presence in our specialist area, as a separate branch within the business.”

Bravida will become the owner on 1 February 2023.
