Bravida appoints new Head of HR for the group

Bravida has appointed Ingegerd Engquist as new Head of HR for the Bravida Group. Most recently, Ingegerd comes from Holmen AB where she worked as HR director. Ingegerd enters the position on May 2 and will be a part of Bravidas Management Group.

Ingegerd has extensive experience and has previously worked as HR manager at IFS, Electrolux, Holmen Paper, and most recently as Director of HR at Holmen AB.

– It feels good to have recruited a new Head of HR for the group who has the wide set of skills that Ingegerd possess. We welcome her to the Management group and look forward to working together with her to further strengthen Bravida as the leading installation and service company in the industry, says Mattias Johansson, CEO and Group President of Bravida

Ingegerd will, among other things, work to strengthen Bravida as an attractive employer.

– It will be an exciting mission to actively implement Bravida's business goals into concrete activities that lay the foundation for a good environment for employees and contribute to making the company an attractive employer. I look forward to lift HR issues in a distinct way in the Management group, says Ingegerd Engquist.

Magnus Hamerslag, interim Head of HR for the group, will continue in his role as Head of Operations Development.
