Thommy Lundmark becomes permanent Head of Division North, Bravida

Thommy Lundmark has been acting Head of Division North since April 2016. His role has now been made permanent.

Thommy Lundmark started as a project manager in Bravida in 1988, after having worked as a fitter for some years. Since 2004, he has been a Regional Manager within Division North. In April 2016 he was made acting Head of Division North.

– In the past few months it has become clear that we have the right person in the right place. It feels safe that Thommy's role is now made permanent. He has the experience and knowledge necessary to keep developing Division North in his new role as Head of Division – among other things through our improvement initiatives, says Mattias Johansson, CEO and Group President, Bravida.

Thommy Lundmark is thankful for the confidence and is looking forward to the new challenge.

– It feels great and interesting to be included in Bravida's development on a divisional and Group level. Our culture, the Bravida Way, is a strong and positive force in our company. With it, we can take both Division North and Bravida as a whole to the next level, says Thommy Lundmark.

Thommy Lundmark will start his position as permanent Head of Division North as of today.
