

Update regarding Örnsköldsvik Municipality – Police are not initiating investigation proceedings against Bravida

Today, 1 July 2025, the police announced that there is no reason to initiate investigation proceedings against Bravida, following Örnsköldsvik Municipality's police report filed on 19 May.

“The police's decision was expected. We are engaged in dialogue with the customer and look forward to continuing this process. As previously communicated, we regret that we have had to take our dialogue public. Bravida has 84 000 customers throughout the Nordic region who are very satisfied with what we deliver. We cherish our customer relationships and are in contact with many of our customers on a daily basis. So, if uncertainties arise, we identify solutions together,” comments Liselotte Stray, Head of Group Communications at Bravida.
