

Dennis Bader appointed Head of Investor Relations at Bravida Group

Bravida has appointed Dennis Bader as Head of Investor Relations for the Bravida Group.

Dennis Bader joins from his role as Investor Relations Manager at Stora Enso and has previously held positions as a consultant in investor relations and financial communications. He succeeds Peter Norström, who has retired.

“I am pleased to welcome Dennis to Bravida. His experience in Investor Relations, the capital markets, and financial communications will be valuable as we continue our journey. With his expertise, he will play a key role in communicating our strategic progress and building long-term relationships with Bravida’s current and future investors,” comments Petra Vranjes, CFO at Bravida.

Dennis Bader, Head of Investor Relations at Bravida, comments:

“I am very much looking forward to joining Bravida at an exciting stage of its development. Bravida has a strong market position and plays an important role in building and maintaining the infrastructure that society depends on. Together with the management team and the business, I look forward to further strengthening the dialogue with the capital markets and contributing to clear communication about Bravida’s development, strategy, and value creation.”
