Bravida acquires the installations operations of Sensa A/S

Bravida Denmark enters an agreement for cooperation with Sensa A/S and signs an agreement to acquire the installations operations from their business.

Sensa A/S operates within different digital areas, they offer services within networks, data centers and security. Through the acquisition, Bravida will take over Sensa's eight installation technicians and the cooperation agreement is introduced for the two companies to exchange services.

– I look forward to our new cooperation with Sensa and I am pleased that we develop our own offer by acquiring their installations operations. Our new employees holds specialist competences which will complement our offer, says Søren Frahm, Regional Manager Bravida Denmark Region Øst.

Sensa A/S is a subsidiary of Icelandic Siminn ehf. and specialises in services within KNX and IoT (Internet of things).

Bravida Denmark will take over the installations operations from Sensa A/S on November 27, 2017. The business include 8 employees and has a turnover of approximately 8 million DKK.
